Notorious Gossip

The daughter of a very wealthy but hard-working manufacturer was being courted by an indolent young man. The father did not like his type, and frowned upon the affair. One evening he called the young man aside and asked: "Now, how about money? Can you keep going?"

The suitor stammered out: "I—I—I'm afraid I can't very well."

"Then don't keep coming," said the father tersely.

"Daddy," said the son of the house, "why do pipers always walk up and down when they play the bagpipes?"

"Because, my son," replied his father, "they're harder to hit when they're moving."

In an Irish court case, an old man was called into the witness-box. He was rather blind, and in his general bewilderment, he mistook the steps that led into the witness-box, and instead, mounted those that led up to the Bench.

The judge smiled at the mistake, and asked him jocularly: "Is it a judge you want to be, my good man?"

"Ah, faith, thin, your Honour," was the reply. "I'm an old man now, and maybe it's all I'm fit for."

"What did you have, sir?"

"I don't know."

"You don't know?"

"No, I ordered a tender steak."

"I really don't know, mum," said Jane, "unless you raise my wages."

Mr. Murphy was taking his first flight in an airplane. The pilot was taking him over Dallas, and when they were about 300 feet up, the plane suddenly went into a nose dive.

"Ha ha," laughed the pilot as he righted his plane. "Half of the people down there thought we were falling."

"Sure," said Murphy, "and 50 per cent of the people up here thought so, too." —Automobilist.

"Haven't I seen you before?" asked the judge.

"Maybe," replied the tailor. "So many men owe me money I can't remember their faces."

A BUSY DAY

Peace Is Well Worth Sacrifices

London, Oct. 15.

Committees and sub-committees have been busy all to-day at Geneva preparing proposals for submission to the Committee of the League which is co-ordinating the measures to be put into operation by League members in fulfilment of their obligations arising out of the Italian resort to war in disregard of the Covenant and who wish a restoration of peace by an agreed settlement.

At a meeting of the sub-committee for mutual assistance, the Chairman said there was no idea that certain countries should receive compensation for sacrifices they might have to make, or that others should give such compensation. "We are all called to make sacrifices with a view to the restoration of peace. Peace is well worth sacrifices. It demands less sacrifice than war, but in conformity with Paragraph 3 of Article XVI we must reach an agreement to minimise the loss and inconvenience resulting from the application of sanctions."

The Committee is examining the possibility of opening new markets in favour of countries suffering loss of export through the trade embargo against Italy.

KEY PRODUCTS

The Economic Sub-committee has been considering the imposition of an embargo on exports to Italy of key products, and also the refusal by League Powers to receive exports from Italy.

According to press telegrams a list of key products is being drawn up and includes materials necessary for the manufacture of munitions of war. There is a general expectation in Geneva that the work of the various sub-committees will be sufficiently advanced to be brought before a meeting of the full Co-ordinating Committee, which consists of one representative of each State member, on Saturday. The position of countries which have declared themselves unable fully to discharge their obligations in collaboration with their fellow League members is also being considered. One suggestion, according to press messages, is that exports of key products to these countries might be restricted to their own actual needs, so as to leave no room for exports to Italy.

DATE FOR ELECTION NOT FIXED

London, Oct. 15.

It is understood that no definite date was fixed for the General Election at to-day's meeting of the Cabinet, but it is learned that there is a strong body of feeling in the Cabinet in favour of the earliest possible appeal to the country.

The view is expressed that when Parliament re-assembles on Tuesday next, the only business to be taken should be a three day debate on foreign affairs, to be followed by a prorogation of Parliament on October 26.

In this case, the dissolution will probably take place on October 26, with nomination day on November 4 and polling day on November 14.

Domestic affairs were considered at to-day's meeting of the Cabinet, and it is understood that Ministers will review the international situation to-morrow.

SINKIANG AND SOVIET

Alliance Denied

Tientsin, Oct. 15.
In a lengthy telegram addressed to the "Ta Kung Pao," a leading Chinese newspaper in Tientsin, to-day, General Sheng Shih-tsai, Commissioner of the Border Defence for Sinkiang, and General Li Yung, Chairman of the Sinkiang Provincial Government, characterized that the rumours, which have been circulated here recently to the effect that the Sinkiang Provincial Government has severed its connection with the Central Government and joined Soviet Russia, were pure fabrications and were intended to destroy the unification of China.

"We were completely surprised," declared the Sinkiang leaders, "when the news reached us that such rumours were in the air in North China." Since the reorganization of the Sinkiang Provincial Government, they continued, we, as military and civil governors of this province, have made it our duty to be loyal to the Central Government, in the hope of hastening the unification of China.

According to General Sheng and Li, Sinkiang is now concentrating efforts in the reconstruction of the province. With reference to the political administration, the provincial authorities are following the orders of the Central Government.

The relations with Soviet are those of friendly intercourse of commerce and trade, and are based upon the policy of the Central Government. It is further asserted in the telegram—

NEW VICEROY IS CONFIDENT

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.
Lord Linlithgow, who in April will take up his duties as the new Viceroy of India, spoke of his task when he made a "good-bye" speech at a luncheon in connection with the Grocers' Exhibition in London yesterday.
"I go shortly to initiate great changes in India," he said. "Those changes are the result of many years of development and of work on the part of men of different races and of different creeds, of differing outlook and of differing political views, whose one common denominator was a desire to work with honesty of purpose, with good will, and with courage towards a future which they believed to be implicit in the long history of our relations with India."
"There are men of weight and experience who still regard those changes with doubt, if not with fear."

NATIONAL FOOD POLICY
"I do not do so myself, and it is in the spirit of the Government of India, Act meeting change where it must come with resolution, without backward glances, and with our inherited instinct to seek through compromise a path that all can follow that I recommend that you, too, face the days ahead."

Lord Linlithgow made a reference to Sir John Orr's recent speech urging the need for a national food policy.

"You have certainly watched with interest, and I hope with sympathy," he said, "the milk-in-schools scheme, and the experiment in supplying cheap potatoes to the unemployed" at Bishop Auckland.

"We must not make the mistake of reading too much into them, for they were designed, I understand, with a business object, that of improving demand or testing the possibilities of doing so."

ALPINE CLIMBING FUND

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.
The Solway family, well known in Belgium for its gifts to philanthropic causes, has created a fund to encourage alpine climbing in memory of King Albert I. The fund has been sanctioned by King Leopold.

OPIUM DEN FINDS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.
The many tasks undertaken by Sir Robert Robertson, the Government chemist, and his staff, at the Government Laboratory, during the year ended March 31, are described in the annual report, issued yesterday.

The total number of samples examined during the year was 522,788, an increase on the previous year of 19,196.

The 82 samples submitted by the police authorities through the Home Office included a number taken during raids on opium-smoking dens.

These were found to consist of hashish, raw opium, prepared opium and opium dross. Various implements associated with opium smoking were also found.

The British Museum, the report states, sent a document in connection with an alleged forgery. The result of the examination of the document is not given.

The laboratory was also asked by the Board of Inland Revenue to inspect stamps and documents suspected of having been fraudulently used.

To ensure the purity of National Mark water cress beds 28 samples of water and effluents from the beds were examined by the laboratory.

TO GET RID OF STOMACH TROUBLES

An English Doctor
writes:—

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after most of my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."
(Signed) Dr. H. G. —, M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

THE English doctor is the most conservative medical man in the world, and when he not only recommends but personally uses a remedy there can be no more convincing proof of its efficacy. This doctor is but one of many who constantly advise the use of 'Bisurated' Magnesia in all cases of indigestion. Most stomach trouble is caused by acidity, and the reason why 'Bisurated' Magnesia gives quick relief is that it instantly neutralises excess acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining. Nothing could be simpler, safer or surer. If you suffer with indigestion or stomach disorder of any kind put your faith in European science and make an end of your troubles by taking 'Bisurated' Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt.

TEMPTING VARIETIES

Cold Cuts And Meat Loaves

Meat loaves and cold cuts can be prepared to do duty for two or more meals and they are available in fine variety. Corned beef, beef and calves' tongue, cottage ham, as well as baked and jellyed meat loaves and cold sliced roasts make delicious meats for summer days. The care of meats after cooking is of prime importance if they are to remain attractive to the last morsel. In the first place, to preserve them they must be kept very cold. Then they must be kept well covered to prevent drying and loss of flavor. These two simple precautions insure against food waste.

CORN BEEF

Corned beef is appetizing for summer menus and may be bought by the pound. It seldom needs freshening. A thorough washing in cold water when it comes from the market and it is ready to cook. Put in cold water to more than cover. Bring slowly to the boiling point and remove scum as it rises. Simmer until tender and cool in water in which it was cooked. Removed to a large plate or platter, cover with a second plate and weight. Press until cold and firm and cut in thin slices to serve.

Beef and calves' tongues may be bought salted or fresh. The salted or pickled tongue always is freshened before cooking. Let beef tongue stand in cold water over night to freshen. Four or five hours should be long enough for calves'. Cover the fresh or freshened tongue with cold water and cook slowly until tender. Salt is added to fresh tongue, 3-4 teaspoon to a pound of meat, after the tongue has cooked about one hour. Let cool in water in which it was cooked and remove skin and roots. Serve sliced cold or in a hot cream sauce with boiled tomatoes.

MEAT LOAVES

Meat loaves are good served hot the day they are baked and are equally as good served cold. Veal and beef are commonly used, alone or in combination, for hot meat loaves, but lamb makes a delicious loaf and seldom is used. Ham loaf is good, too.

Veal and lamb both are excellent in jellyed loaves. These jellyed loaves are distinctly summery and delicate and can be made most attractive and festive looking by clever garnishing, while they cost no more than the usual baked loaf.

Variety is one of the pleasant things of life, and a juicy meat loaf is another. Variety in meat loaves makes a perfect combination. The meat loaf is an economical oven dish that always meets with the hearty approval of a wholesome, hungry family. Then, too, it is possible to cook almost the entire dinner in the oven, thus simplifying both the amount of time and fuel spent on this meal.

But everyone grows tired of her favorite recipe at some time or other and begins to cast about for other suggestions. To the woman on the lookout for new and delightful changes, these different and unusual meat loaves will be a find.

SALAD DRESSING

A quickly made and economical salad dressing is made as follows: Pour into a basin a small tin of sweetened condensed milk. Stir in half a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of pepper, and half a teaspoonful of made mustard. Beat in a few drops at a time, a tablespoonful of olive oil and two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. More vinegar may be added if liked. Mix it all well together and bottle. This dressing also makes an excellent horseradish sauce if mixed with some grated horseradish.

BEETROOT

Many people who preserve beetroot at home find difficulty in preventing the beetroot from turning mouldy. Mustard is excellent for safeguarding against this and a small teaspoonful should be stirred into each jar before the beetroot is put in. To prevent beetroot from "bleeding" when they are cooked the blade of an old kitchen knife should be heated until red hot and pressed against any raw parts before they are put on to boil.

VEGETARIAN DISHES

MEATLESS DIET

Here are some useful recipes for those who prefer a meatless diet:

CREAMED SPINACH

2 lbs. spinach
1 oz. butter
Little puff pastry if available
Pepper and salt.
Wash the spinach thoroughly; as many as five or six waters are often necessary. Remove the midrib from each leaf, as this will make it less stringy. If the spinach is old, put the spinach into a large pan, without any water, and allow it to cook in its own moisture with a very little salt. When tender, strain, chop finely, or rub through a sieve. Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the sieved spinach and additional seasoning, pepper, and salt, if necessary and reheat, stirring to prevent it sticking to the pan. Serve in a vegetable dish decorated with small croutons of nicely browned puff pastry or fried bread. If preferred, the spinach may be served in spoonfuls on croutons of fried bread.

PLAIN FACTS ABOUT POTATOES

Old potatoes are sometimes yellow when boiled. To improve the colour add a tablespoonful of milk to the water in which they are boiled.

Baked potatoes often take long to cook but the process will be speeded up if you brush them all over with salad oil.

Try this with cooked waxy potatoes: Slice them thickly, place in a frying-pan with a little milk, butter, pepper and salt. Simmer till the milk is soaked up but do not let the potato brown. Serve hot.

GINGER CARAMELS

For these delicious sweets you will require one pound of icing sugar, the white of one egg, and some ground ginger or a little ginger essence. If you use ground ginger, which can be bought in small cartons, you will require about a dessertspoonful to a pound of icing sugar. Mix it well with the sugar, add the white of egg and sufficient water to make a stiff paste.

Roll the paste on a board to nearly one inch thick through cut it into caramel squares, press a piece of dry preserved ginger in the top of each, and leave for several hours to set and dry.

EMERALD EGGS

A savoury or luncheon dish. Chop two tablespoonfuls of scalded parsley finely. Grease four dariole tins and line them with the chopped parsley. Break an egg into each mould and then place the moulds in a pan of boiling water, taking care that the water only reaches half-way up the moulds. Cover the pan with a greased paper and steam gently for ten minutes, watching that the eggs do not curdle. Have ready a round of hot buttered toast for each egg and cover the toast with finely chopped parsley. Turn the eggs out upon the rounds or toast and serve at once. The eggs should be lightly seasoned when dropped into the moulds.

Fruit Bread

1 1/2 lb. flour
1 lb. clarified dripping
1 lb. each of currants and raisins
1 lb. moist sugar
2 oz. mixed peel, cut small
1 oz. compressed yeast

SCALLOPED CABBAGE

1 qt. shredded cabbage
4 oz. diced or shredded cheese
1 oz. butter
1 pt. well-seasoned white sauce
1 tablespoonful grated cheese
A little salted water
Cook the shredded cabbage until tender in a very little salted water, with the butter, drain well and put in a greased baking dish. To white sauce, made with milk and liquor from cabbage, add cheese. Cook until the cheese is melted and whip together until smooth. Pour the sauce over the cabbage, stir together lightly, sprinkle with the tablespoonful of grated cheese and brown in hot oven.

CURRANT BUNS

1 lb. warm flour
1 level teaspoonful of salt
4 oz. butter
1 oz. yeast
1 whipped egg
2 oz. candied peel
2 oz. sugar
1 gill milk
4 oz. currants

Method:—Mix the salt with the flour and rub in the butter. Make a well in the centre and into this pour the yeast which has been worked with the sugar, the milk, and the egg. Leave to stand for twenty minutes, knead thoroughly, add the fruit, and leave to stand for one and a half to two hours. Shape into buns with as little kneading as possible, brush each with beaten egg, and leave to rest for fifteen minutes. Bake in a very hot oven for fifteen minutes, and a minute or two before this time has elapsed, brush each bun with warmed syrup.

These can be eaten cold or you can cut them in half, toast and butter them and eat them hot.

FAVOURITE SALAD

CHICKEN STUFFED TOMATO SALADS

6 tomatoes
1 cup diced cooked chicken
1 cup diced celery
2 tablespoonfuls chopped pimientos
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1 cup stuff mayonnaise

Wash and peel tomatoes. Remove centers. Chill. Mix 1/2 mayonnaise with chicken, celery, pimientos, salt and paprika. Chill. Stuff tomatoes, serve on lettuce and surround with remaining mayonnaise.

LIVER LOAF

One pound beef liver, 1 cup chopped salt pork, 2 tablespoonfuls minced onion, 2 tablespoonfuls minced parsley, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 egg beaten, salt, pepper. Pour boiling water over the liver, let stand for a few minutes, and then drain. Grind the liver, salt pork and onion together and combine with the remaining ingredients. Mix thoroughly and shape into a loaf with the hands and place in a greased pan. Place a few strips of salt pork over the top of the loaf or dot it with butter and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about an hour.

Rub the fat into the flour until smooth. Mix all the ingredients together, melt the yeast in a pint of warm water, add to the mixture and beat into a light dough. Divide into three or four, put into greased, warmed tins, leave to rise by the fire for half an hour and bake in a moderate oven for one hour.

It's EASY to Catch COLD or 'FLU' when TRAVELLING

'ASPRO'
WILL PROTECT YOU

GERMS are no respecters of persons. Wherever you travel you cannot tell the moment you are likely to catch a cold—or even the 'Flu'. The proved protection is 'ASPRO'. At the slightest sign of sneezing—sore throat—feverishness, etc., take 'ASPRO' according to the directions in the packet. Quick relief is assured, because 'ASPRO' expels the body poisons through the pores of the skin, and, therefore, restores one to normal health by eliminating such poisons and not suppressing them. Furthermore, 'ASPRO' is safe, sure and certain—it neither harms the heart nor stomach, and conforms to the standard of purity laid down by the British Pharmacopoeia—the guiding authority of the medical profession.

BUY A PACKET TO-DAY FOR PROOF.

STaunch BELIEVER IN 'ASPRO' NOW—SCEPTICAL AT FIRST!

Dear Sirs,
I thank ASPRO Tablets for warding off influenza from my little boy, aged nine, as well as myself, when my wife, who was then an unbeliever in them, refused to take them, and finished up in hospital with double pneumonia, while we were getting colds, but stopped them with ASPRO and nothing else.
My wife is a staunch advocate for their use now, and takes ASPRO at the first sign of a cold. Wishing ASPRO and their inventor, all the good luck they deserve—I am,
Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) L. WILLIAMS.

Stubborn Cold Goes—PROOF!

Dear Sirs,
I thank you for your kind interest in directing me to the certain way to effect a cure in the nasty 'COLD' with which I had been battling for three weeks, during which time I had tried so many other infallible remedies. On Thursday last I carried out your advice to the letter, and I could hardly believe the fact that on Saturday morning I woke up with no cold left, nor did I cough through the night as I had been in the habit of doing. Although I have used ASPRO with excellent results for years in relieving HEADACHES, I can say positively and with very much appreciation, that your assurance that ASPRO would break up a Cold or the 'Flu' in 24 hours if the directions were properly observed, has been conclusively proved.

CINEMA TRADE NOTICES

CURLY TOP

The happiest picture of Shirley Temple's career, "Curly Top," comes on Friday to the screen of the King's Theatre.

In "Curly Top," a charming story of a little girl who captures the heart of a lonely bachelor and makes both their dreams come true, Shirley has two new songs to sing and several new and elaborate dance routines for audience approval.

In this Fox Film comedy-drama, John Boles is cast as a bachelor who adopts Shirley and her sister, Rochelle Hudson. His generosity takes them from the drab and dreary atmosphere of an orphanage to the sunny summer surroundings of a palatial home in Southampton. Their romance, of Boles and Rochelle Hudson flourishes under the child's guidance of little Shirley who sings, dances and laughs her way into their hearts.

Shirley is really happy in this picture, for she has the opportunity of displaying her full talents when she sings "Animal Crakers in My Soup" and "When I Grow Up."

Shirley is not the only one to sing in this joyful film. John Boles sings "It's All New To Me" and "Curly Top," while Rochelle Hudson surprises by singing for the first time, "The Simple Things in Life."

Ray Henderson, America's ace song writer, wrote the melodies for all the song numbers for "Curly Top," which was produced by Winfield Sheehan and directed by Irving Cummings.

LILIES OF THE FIELD

One of the most charming films that has come from any studio this year is to be seen and certainly should be seen at the King's Theatre to-day. "Lilies of the Field" comes like a surfeit of raw and powerful spirits. It has the speed that enraptures instead of killing, wit that entertains without disgusting, and pictures of the English countryside that the public of the English countryside has for years been pleading for in vain.

The film, cleverly adapted from John Hastings Turner's famous play that marked the final curtain of tragic Meggie Albani, is written round grinnings, claret cups and chop whiskers.

It tells how an ultra-modern young miss adopts Victorian manners and modes in order to get her man, and in the process gives hungry Mayfair a new idea.

The whole affair is delightful and, as the proudest heroine, Winifred Shotter has her finest part to date and etches it brilliantly. She is natural, roguish and, uncommonly attractive; it would be hard to imagine a happier example of casting.

Anthony Bushell shows new acting power as the hero; Jud Gunn, as the twin sister who remains modern throughout, makes a perfect foil to Winifred Shotter's assumed coyness.

Norman Walker deserves praise for his direction and Cyril Britton for his camera work.

You can take the whole family including maiden aunts to see "Lilies of the Field." Everyone will love it.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE in "CURLY TOP" with JOHN BOLES

"CAR 99"

At The Queen's

The screen brings once again before the delighted eyes of the feminine followers the stalwart form of the new star who appeared so engagingly, and so "different" in "The Glided Lily." In a mood entirely removed from that of the brash reporter of his former success Fred MacMurray, in "Car 99," now at the Queen's Theatre, is the simple policeman, very much in love with the village belle. Masculine hearts, as well as those of the feminine element, will stir to the thrill of his smashing effectiveness in dealing with bank robbers and gangsters. "Car 99" is better than the average detective movie, and is saved from too close similarity to all other mystery films by its intimate connection with the operation of a large central police headquarters, with all its fascinating radio equipment and the opportunity it affords to witness the training of future protectors of the law. Sir Guy Standing makes a villain as urbane to the eye and as thoroughly black at heart as the most fastidious taste in villains could desire. With hero and villain so completely satisfactory, and a story replete with tense situations, "Car 99" is excellent entertainment.

MAX BAER-JOE LOUIS TITLE BOUT

Rushed by air-mail to the Colony, the first pictures of the Max Baer-Joe Louis prize fight will be shown in the King's Theatre on October 23rd.

The complete fight will be shown on the screen, followed by an excellent mystery drama, titled "Thunder In The Night," starring Edmund Lowe, Karen Morley and Paul Cavanagh.

The print of the fight is being brought here by Bonnie Powell, Fox Film ace cameraman, who will make a "Magic Carpet" of our beautiful island. This is the first time the King's Theatre has been able to play a film so soon after the incidents occurred. The film reaches Hong Kong in the record time of 27 days after the fight.

It will be of interest to those who live in Kowloon, that the same picture of the Baer-Louis fight will be screened at the Alhambra Theatre also on the 23rd, with another Fox Film titled "Welcome Home," starring Jimmie Dunn.

LADY PAMELA SMITH

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 23.

Lady Pamela Smith, whose engagement to Mr. William Michael Barry, the second son of Lord Camrose, was announced last night, is the younger daughter of the late Lord Birkenhead.

She has three great gifts—beauty, brains and wit. Such a combination among womenkind comes only once in a long time.

Mr. Michael Barry, who is being trained for the family newspaper business, is a forceful and able young man of 24.

He has done the usual round of his father's newspapers, has worked in Aberdeen and Glasgow, and is now in Manchester. He is coming to London in a few months.

FILM STAR WITH A VOICE

Nino Martini's Debut

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 23.

Yesterday writes a correspondent I saw privately "Here's to Romance," the new Fox musical film, starring Nino Martini, for whom Mr. Jess Lasky predicts a great screen future.

His voice is full and round and apparently—even without the amplification so noticeable in this picture—of considerable power.

What is more, he is extremely good-looking, in an aesthetic and slightly delicious way. I heard him compared with Valentino, though he has none of Valentino's robustness; and I shall not be surprised if his looks, coupled with his singing of favourites from "Pagliacci" and "Tosca," soon bring him success.

HOW HOLLYWOOD WAS BORN

After the picture Mr. Lasky, one of the pioneers of the film industry, recalled the days when he and Sam Goldwyn (then Goldfish) scraped together $25,000 to make "The Squaw Man," with Cecil de Mille as director and Dustin Farnum, the Broadway actor, as star.

Mr. Lasky and Mr. Goldwyn were shown a barn near Los Angeles which a sardonic Scot, Robert Brunton, had fitted as a studio; and there Hollywood was born.

But the picture that made history was not made without trouble. Farnum had agreed to take 25 per cent. of the shares, because we had no money to offer him," said Mr. Lasky.

"At the last moment he announced that he must have cash. With difficulty I found a glove manufacturer willing to take over his holding; the shares he rejected were sold later for several million dollars, and Dustin Farnum died a pauper."

A $30,000 DOLLAR ERROR

Mr. Lasky's best story, however, was about "Wings" first of the flying pictures. "It was estimated to cost a million dollars," he said. "It cost two million and made two and a half millions—in fact, I believe it was the second biggest money-maker in film history. The biggest scene in the film was the American push at St.

MISS VIOLET MELNOTTE

Miss Violet Melnotte, the theatre owner, died in London last night. Before she first entered into management at the old Avenue Theatre in 1885 she had had a successful career as an actress. In 1892 she and her husband, the late Mr. Frank Wyatt, built the Duke of York's Theatre, which she let in 1898 to the late Mr. Charles Frohman, who retained it until his death in 1915. She sold it in 1928 for about £120,000, but in 1933, when over 80, she resumed control at her old theatre. Last year her engagement to her manager was announced, but the marriage did not take place.

Mr. George Grey Butler, of Ewart Park, Wooler, Northumberland, the only surviving son of the late Mrs. Josephine Butler, the social reformer, and Canon George Butler, died last night at the age of 84. He had a distinguished career at Cambridge University, was appointed, permanent examiner to the Civil Service Commissioners in 1876 and became Senior Examiner six years later. Mr. Butler, who was a widower, retired in 1895.

Mihel. We had hired 4,000 "extras," and prepared 100 acres, dug trenches, sowed the land with mines all wired for explosions, planted a dozen cameras here and there, and built a tower on which stood the director with the flag that was to be signal for cameras to turn and mines to explode.

"At this stage the mayor arrived with his wife and daughter. He had done us some favours, so we allowed them to stand on the tower. His daughter saw a friend on the ground and called. The friend did not hear.

"Woo-hoo," called the mayor's daughter again, waving the director's flag—and then he broke loose. Every mine exploded, cannon roared, armies charged, and everything went exactly according to plan—except that the cameras were not turning.

That little error cost us 10 days' work and 30,000 dollars."

To-day's Laugh

SAFEST NIGHT AIRPORT

Beacons Girdle Aerodrome

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

Croydon Aerodrome is now flooded by what is claimed to be the safest system in Europe, and one contrived by British lighting engineers.

There is no doubting the efficiency of this new system. Half an hour ago, writes a correspondent I was looking down, through the calm sky of a perfect September night, on Fleet-street, "The Daily Telegraph" office clearly to be distinguished from a height of 3,000ft.

We return and descend on Croydon's aerodrome with its great red beacon (visible 60 miles away). The new white biscuit of light with never a glare gives us welcome. And there are the friendly yellow flashing lights to mark the boundaries.

ILLUMINATED WIND GAUGE

The batteries of floodlights pour their brilliance across the tarmac and the grass for half a mile, and a line of little yellow beacon lights girdle the big aerodrome. A larger beacon with a lighted base gives the pilot his sense of perspective. The lights come from 6-volt current, as harmless and as incapable of causing fire as a car's lighting set, so that if one be knocked over with the tip of a wing it collapses without causing serious damage.

To the south of the aerodrome a 20ft. wind indicator picked out in lights swings to the slightest breeze—and if there is one thing that matters as much to the pilot as his compass it is the wind indicator on the landing ground. It is a beautiful system of lighting. There is no glare to meet the incoming pilot—merely a layer of welcoming light; no hasty rushing of moveable light on wagons to this point and to that as the wind veers and no bedazzling towers.

EIGHT MILLION CANDLES

There are eight floodlights to be switched, from Croydon's nerve centre, the control tower, over such angles of the aerodrome as the wind demands. Each is of six kilowatts, has the power of a million candles, and illuminates 4½ million square feet.

Major Mealing, of the Department of Civil Aviation in the Air Ministry, described to me to-night the far-seeing policy which has so made our great port the safest and best equipped in the world for safe landing at night. "We know," he said, "that night flying must come and must come quickly. We must fly not only in the daylight hours, but in the hours of darkness. Flying is a means of transport which must go on from strength to strength, and in this new development and in these new demands we have been urged on by our ever progressive Post Office."

Mr. Villiers, son of Adm. Villiers, and a relative of the Earl of Clarendon, as Mr. J. E. Fletcher, Director of the General Electric Company told me, has been mainly responsible for this new standard of aerodrome lighting.

A NOVEL FILM FROM UTAH

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 30.

A contract for 20,000 cars and chassis was placed this week with Morris Motors by their London distributors, Messrs. Stewart and Arden, Limited. This is the largest single order ever received by the company, and represents a record increase compared with last year's contract, which was itself a record.

Sir Malcolm Campbell, brought back with him from Utah a film of considerable value. It is not a film of his famous car, the Blue Bird, hurtling over the Salt Flats at 300 m.p.h., and is not in the ordinary sense of the word a spectacular film, but it contains data which will interest all who are engaged in the science of high-speed locomotion.

It is a record of the dashboard readings of Blue Bird's instruments, and it was taken by a special cine-kodak apparatus during the run. The camera was in a cabinet fixed to the Blue Bird, and in the cabinet there were: duplicates of certain instruments, a chronometer, revolution counter and oil and blower pressure gauges.

The battery needs of every make of car are provided for by Exide batteries, among which is the Double Life battery, with its two years' unconditional guarantee, made possible by the double separation between plates which adds to the mechanical strength and life of the battery. The range of this battery has been considerably extended along the lines of the standard battery, both in regard to types and replacement facilities. A recent addition is the Exide Buoyed Power motor-cycle battery, fitted with balanced helical springs placed on the mounting bolts to cushion the battery from the frame of the machine and protect it from extreme vibration.

Gentle Hint

An Irishman had just signed his name in the hotel register, and was called back by the clerk, who pointed out that he had omitted to record his nationality. Taking up the pen he wrote, "Irish, and proud of it."

A Scots guest arrived a few minutes later and, seeing the Irishman's entry, wrote, "Scotch—and fond of it."

WINGS IN THE DARK

For those who like their drama replete with thrills, excitement and new ideas, Paramount's "Wings in the Dark," coming soon to the Queen's Theatre, should be marked on their list as one they cannot afford to miss. A love story laid against the timely and topical plot of a pilot who dares death in the perfection of "blind flying."

It stars beautiful Myrna Loy and handsome Cary Grant as a pair of flying daredevils. And although it is impossible to gain any idea of the excellence of Miss Loy's recent picture, she seems to excel even in her breezy, down-to-earth and sympathetic role opposite Grant. Grant's characterizations are equally gratifying. His very difficult role is superbly handled, and he gives a powerful performance which should be remembered for a long time. Deprived of his usually good-looking clothes, he is a leather-jacketed pilot almost throughout and proves that he can hold his own admirably as an actor. Credit for the absorbing interest of this picture is also due Director James Flood, and a long list of supporting players whose roles were cleverly woven in as integral parts of the main plot.

CHINESE ART FROM THE PALACE

I understand that the King and Queen have consented to lend objects of art from their own collections to the forthcoming International Exhibition of Chinese Art at the Royal Academy.

Their Majesties are patrons of the exhibition and have been keenly interested in it from the first.

It is probable that loans will be made both from Buckingham

RUGGLES OF RED GAP

Charles Laughton, eminent English actor, who forged to the forefront of stage and screen stars with a long series of characterizations of horrifying and sinister characters, finally wins the opportunity to portray a thoroughly lovable person in the title role of Paramount's "Ruggles of the Red Gap" showing at the Oriental Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

I don't want to behead my charming wife as poor Henry did. That is one of the reasons why I was glad to get the chance to play "Ruggles."

"Besides, I feel that I know just how 'Ruggles' felt when he was transported from England to Red Gap. I felt the same way when I first came to this country. I wanted everyone to like me, and I didn't quite know how to go about it. My experience helped."

In the cast supporting Laughton in "Ruggles of Red Gap" are Mary Boland, Charlie Ruggles, Roland Young, and Zasu Pitts. The picture, adapted from Harry Leon Wilson's famous novel, is the story of the American tourists who won an English butler in a poker game and brought him home to show up the four-flushers.

Palace and from the King's collection at Windsor.

The Queen is a connoisseur of Chinese jade, and was, indeed, collecting pieces before jade was generally appreciated in this country.

A number of her own purchases will be seen. I gather, at Burlington House.

HOUSE USED AS OPIUM DIVAN

Stating that he would like time to consider the case, Mr. Schofield ordered an adjournment of one week at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the case in which Lok Po (50) a woman appeared before him charged with trespassing on Crown Land at Sai Wan Ho. Defendant who was on $25 bail, pleaded that a man, named Ng Wal took the permit away from her, as she owed him money.

Mr. W. E. Hollands, of the Public Works Department said a letter was received from Ng Wal stating that the defendant was occupying his house and would not leave. Apparently she was permitted to live there for a few months during Ng Wal's absence.

Actually, the defendant was now trespassing on Crown land, but there was a permit for the structure. Originally the permit was in the name of the defendant's husband, but was later transferred to Ng Wal.

There was no question of submitting the house to the defendant. She had been given three months to remove from the premises, but she had refused. The woman was also using the place as an opium divan, and evidence could be brought to this effect.

Mr. Hollands added that his instructions were to prosecute the woman for trespassing on Crown land.

OTHER CHARGES

Similar charges were admitted by Yeung Kiu-lam (18) unemployed, and Wong Ho, (39) coolie. Yeung was fined $10 and Wong $5 or seven days' gaol. Both were ordered to pull their structures down within one week to the satisfaction of the P.W.D.

Mr. Hollands stated that defendants had obtained stone from the quarry and built structures on Crown land at Sai Wan Ho. No permit would be issued for new structures, he said.

EX-CONSTABLE CHARGED

An ex-Shantung constable, Li Tak-chai, aged 37, appeared at the Kowloon Court this morning before Mr. Wynne-Jones, charged on two counts relating to the theft of a cotton singlet, a cock and three hens, and a charge of having possession of a pick-lock. Defendant pleaded guilty, to the charges of theft and failed to give a satisfactory explanation for the possession of the pick-lock, and was remanded for 24 hours in police custody for further enquiries.

The complainant was, Chan Tai, a 18-year-old girl, and Wong Tsui, aged 62, a vegetable gardener.

The prosecuting officer Inspector Chester-Woods, produced a record in which it was stated that defendant had a previous conviction for larceny in 1934.

His Worship: Why are these ex-constables let in the Colony; why aren't they sent away?

Inspector Chester-Woods: I don't know; he may have been locally recruited.

Quizzed, defendant stated that he had been recruited locally.

A trade mark summons, concerning flash light batteries, was called up before Mr. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday the complainant being Ng Tse-shak, proprietor of the Paul Battery Company, 282-286 Lockhart Road, and the defendant, H. Yalla, otherwise known as Salehbal Hathi Walla, manager of Philabin and Company, 388 Hennessy Road. Mr. S. Ng Quinn appeared for the complainant and mentioned that the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo is appearing for the defence. The case was adjourned for one week. The summons alleges false trade marks on flashlight batteries of the complainant firm on October 10.

Failing to appear before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday to answer a charge of keeping a common gaming house at No. 37 Hsiphong Road, ground floor, Wu Lam, (43) coolie, forfeited his bail of $50. Thirteen other coolies were arrested for gambling on the premises; three of whom failed to appear in Court and their bail of $5 each was forfeited. The other gamblers pleaded guilty and were each fined $2. The sum of $3,390 picked up was put in the Poor Box. Detective Sub-Inspector L. Whant prosecuted.

WOMEN SQUABBLE ON STEAMER

To Yau, (23) married woman, appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday charged with assaulting another married woman, Ho Yee-ping, on board the steamer Kwongtung while on passage from Canton to Hong Kong.

Sub-Inspector Walsh said that both complainant and defendant were deck passengers on the steamer. At about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, complainant woke up defendant who was sleeping on the bunk above her, and they had an argument which led to a struggle resulting in complainant being hit on the head with a metal mug.

Asked why she had struck complainant, defendant said complainant had first struck her child with a fan and also wanted to drag her from her bunk. His Worship bound both parties over in personal bonds.

WOMAN PLEADS GUILTY

Three cases of possession of po-pu lottery tickets were before Mr. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday, all concerning women carriers.

Chan Yiu, (26) single woman, pleaded guilty to possession of 735 tickets found on her at Connaught Road Central near the Yau-mat Ferry Wharf. A fine of $100, or six weeks' hard labour, was imposed.

Admitting the possession of 208 tickets at Queen's Road West near Possession Street, Wong Sze, (37), married woman, was fined $50, or one month's hard labour. Another woman, Chan Sze, (20), was fined $15, or three weeks' hard labour, when she pleaded guilty to possession of 25 tickets found on her at Connaught Road Central near Hing Lung Street.

Sub-Inspector J. Walsh prosecuted in each case.

Mrs. Cramer, No. 1, Chatham Park, was summoned before Mr. Macfadyen yesterday morning, at the Central Police Court, for allowing her dog out without a muzzle or leash and was fined $5. Miss Cramer told the Magistrate that the dog must have run out without anyone seeing it, as she always put its muzzle on. The dog had been inoculated. Appearing before Mr. Macfadyen on a similar charge, Mrs. Franklin, 37, Robinson Road, was also fined $5.

On charges of keeping a prostitutes' lodging house at 3, Sam Ka Lane, first floor and 15, Aberdeen Street, second floor, respectively, Wong Ng, married woman, and Wu Shan, married woman, were each fined $50, or one month's hard labour, by Mr. Schofield at the Central Police Court.

Similar penalties were meted out to Wong Sam Mui, widow, and Li Ng, (62), widow, who pleaded guilty to soliciting in Water Street and Rose Lane respectively. Sub-Inspector Therp, prosecuted in all the cases.

Kwok Fai, (67) unemployed was sentenced to eight months' hard labour by Mr. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a charge of returning before his banishment term of ten years from December 23, 1933, had been completed. Defendant had a previous conviction for being the keeper of a sly brothel. Detective Sergeant Kinnear prosecuted.

MISSIONARIES' ORDEAL

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

Mr. Rudolph Bosshardt, of Chorlton-cum-Hardy, Manchester, the missionary captive of Communists in China, and his companion, Mr. A. Hayman, a New Zealander are reported to be "in a sorry condition." They have been in the hands of the Communist army since last October.

A letter received by the China Inland Mission in London states that the two men were seen by Chinese Christian messengers on Aug. 21. The news amply describes the situation as "very critical."

It is stated that the messengers were unable to conclude negotiations for the release of the captives as the Communists had renewed their earlier impossible terms. Another attempt, however, was to be made.

TRADE MARK CASE

Appeal Against Decision

Judgment was reserved in the appeal against a decision of Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen, the Lower Court Magistrate, in dismissing the summons brought by the United States Drug Store against the Sino-German Dispensary for alleged infringement of a trade mark, which was made before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, and the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, in the Full Court yesterday.

The summons against the Sino-German Dispensary in the Lower Court was for selling medicine to which a trade mark, so nearly resembling complainant's trade mark, "Senkesin," as to be calculated to deceive, had been falsely applied.

Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., instructed by the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, appeared for the appellants, the United States Drug Store; and Mr. Hin-shing Lo, instructed by Mr. J. M. Hall, was for the respondent, the Sino-German Dispensary.

Mr. Potter said the appeal was from the decision of Mr. Macfadyen in a trade mark prosecution. The principle he said, was of great importance than the question of the amount of the penalty imposed.

The Magistrate held at the conclusion of the case for the prosecution that there was no case to answer, and that no "prima facie" case had been made out.

VALUABLE PILLS

The appellants were the registered proprietors of the trade mark which consisted of three Chinese characters, "Sin Kai Sin." There was also, as part of the mark, the English word "Senkesin." That mark was registered under Clause 3 for medicine. It was, in fact, used in connection with packets of pills which were of considerable value, as they restored vigour and youth. Not only was this mark used, but it was used, only on this type of medical goods.

Continuing, Mr. Potter contended, that, rightly or wrongly, there was an obvious infringement of his client's mark as two-thirds of the characters were used by the respondents. It was an obvious infringement and as such came within the scope of the Merchandise Marks Ordinance.

"WORD" MARK

Couns. then went on to remind their Lordships that if he criticised the decision of the Magistrate he did not desire to do so in a critical manner, as the learned Magistrate had studied the case very carefully. In the course of his decision, the Magistrate had laid emphasis on the word "falsely," but Mr. Potter contended that the intention to defraud had nothing to do with the prosecution of this case, as the complainant was in regard to "word mark" and not to "picture mark." Apart from the similarity in the words, the appearance of the respective packets, was entirely different.

Mr. Potter contended that the comparing of the "get-up" of these two packets was wrong, as the question only involved the "word mark" and had nothing to do with appearance.

RESPONDENTS' CASE

For the respondents, Mr. Lo submitted that he had no case to answer. He admitted that two of the three characters on the label of the client's article formed part of the appellant's mark, but he held that there were in all seven characters on the respondents' packet and when read together they conveyed an entirely different meaning from that of the appellants.

The appellants had contended that their case was one of infringement and had nothing to do with deception. Assuming that this was the case, why was it necessary for the appellants to bring in the evidence of the purchaser? Obviously, Mr. Lo contended, it was to prove, deception.

Mr. Justice Lindsell said the bringing in of the evidence of the purchaser was to show that the respondents had in their possession an article bearing a mark closely resembling that of the appellants.

BOY SCOUTS' CONCERT

Fine Entertainment

The second Annual Concert of the 4th Hong Kong (Murray) and the 4th Kowloon (Garrison) Troops was successfully held last night at the China Fleece Club when the premises were packed to overflowing.

The programme of 14 items was well interspersed with songs, music and laughter and the artistes one and all contributed much to the enjoyment of those present.

The Scouts themselves were also responsible for several of the items presented and the type of entertainment provided last night left little to be desired.

The Band of the 2nd Battalion the East Lancashire Regiment opened the proceedings with several selected numbers while Mrs. Anderson Miller delighted the audience with the song "Waltz Song". Mr. P. H. Segon followed up with another song entitled "Getting around and about" after which the pupils of the O'Keefe Montbomey School of Dancing obliged with two dances.

Mr. McNeill was in a humorous vein with his Lancashire Monologues while the Quartette of the 2nd Battalion the East Lancashire Regiment rendered selections. The first half of the programme closed with a sketch entitled "The Company Producer" in which the scouts themselves took part. This act kept the audience in a merry mood.

The second half of the programme was much the same as the first half in which other artistes took part.

Messrs. Li Chor Chi and B. O. Kime were responsible for the duet "Watchman what of the night" and the scouts gave an exhibition of physical training under the direction of A. S. M. J. Mansfield. The Hawaiian Instrumental Trio were called upon to repeat their fare while the Dance by Miss Stella West was vociferously received.

A humorous item by Mr. G. Harvey-Ash brought peals of laughter and the concert concluded with the "Grand Scout Finale" depicting a Camp Fire Scene.

Judging from the applause received the concert was in every way a great success and those who turned up last night were in no wise disappointed by the fare served.

RAILWAY PASSENGER RECORDS

All passenger records for the Kowloon-Canton Railway were shattered during the week ending October 12, 1935. (Double Tenth week), when 64,762 passengers were carried between the terminal stations of Kowloon and Canton.

The previous record obtained during the week ending May 11, 1935, (King's Jubilee week), was 43,131 passengers.

The highest level attained prior to 1935 was during the week ending April 7 last year, when extra Ching Ming Traffic enabled a figure of 30,923 passengers to be obtained.

of their total forces as the entirely useless flank when Allenby struck. There is an interesting comment on the credit claimed for the French troops in the capture of Beyrout.

"Combined forces of British cavalry moved swiftly towards Damascus, which was entered on Sept. 30. On Oct. 3 Allied troops entered Beyrout. The Arab rising had been suppressed in the news might have the honour of its liberation from the Turks."

That there should be no exaggeration of the effect of the revolt, Lawrence is at pains to add: "The Arab Army had no separate share in the conquest of Syria and do not wish any attempt to be made to estimate their individual importance."

THE SINGLE "T"

It is in a passage describing the Arab forces that there occurs the single use of the personal pronoun and the only reference to the fact that Lawrence was with Feisal: "Arab regular army never more than 9,000 strong. The numbers of the irregulars were difficult to estimate. They came up to fight when called, and went home after the action. The whole male population of the district in which he happened to be operating were at the disposal of Feisal, and he used to summon few or many according to the object we had in view. I have seen more than 11,000 of them together and, more often, we had only a few hundred."

COL. LAWRENCE REPORTS

Unique Account Of Arab Revolt

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28. Readers of Col. Lawrence's report on the Arab revolt will be struck by the suppression of the "ego." Only once, on the last page, does Lawrence use the capital "I," and in a previous paragraph he mentions "we."

Throughout he gives all the credit for the success of the Arab campaign to King Feisal, and writes as if he were no more than an anonymous eye-witness.

The first sentence epitomises the simplicity and directness of the narrative: "The Arab revolt broke out in June, 1916, at Mecca and Medina simultaneously." He describes the taking of Fort Jidd and Jidda and of Taif ("taken with help of a 5 in. howitzer"), and goes on to the "less fortunate" siege of Medina, hampered by shortage of rifles, so that the "situation was critical in November and December, 1916."

Naturally, Gen. Allenby soon comes into the picture, and Lawrence states:

"Gen. Allenby recognised the value of the Arab army as his extreme right wing as soon as he reached Egypt in July, 1917, and helped Feisal liberally with equipment. In consequence, the Arab Regular Army took efficient shape and increased to nearly 6,000 men."

Then follows an outstanding example of Lawrence's modesty: "Feisal failed to take Maan himself. He did however, succeed in cutting the Hejaz railway from Maan southwards finally so that the ultimate surrender of Medina became only a matter of time."

As is now well known, it was largely through Lawrence's personal heroism that the railways were cut.

TURKISH LEADERS HOAXED
The report goes on to describe the role of the Arab army in Palestine:

"Gen. Allenby assigned to the Arab Army the duty of cutting the Turkish railway and telegraphic communications between Damascus and Palestine two days before the attack—and keeping them cut. The Arab Army was also to demonstrate against Amman so as to strengthen the Turkish delusion that the main British attack was to be delivered in the Jordan valley. The second intention was very successfully carried out, and the Turks had more than one-third

SECOND EXPERIMENTAL FLIGHT

Imperial Airways Liner At Kai Tak

Although there are four further experimental flights to be undertaken between Penang and Hong Kong, the prospects of the Colony sharing with the rest of the Empire in a through air service appear to be bright. Hong Kong possesses good land marks to the south which enable an incoming airliner to locate it easily, according to the Imperial Airways pilot, who has now completed another flight.

The Imperial Airways' second experimental flight from Penang to Hong Kong was completed yesterday at 1 p.m. when the Pilot, Captain Armstrong landed on Kai Tak Aerodrome.

Interviewed by a representative of the "Daily Press" he stated that the machine was a Diana model and the name of the particular Airplane was Dorado which was a new machine only built seven months ago, and piloted out from Home by Captain Armstrong. At present no commercial load is being carried.

The return trip will be made in two days, the machine leaving on Saturday morning for Tourane.

TEA-TIME PARADE OF FASHIONS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28. Informa: tea-time mannequin parades, initiated by Copland and Lye, Ltd., Glasgow, some time ago, are pleasant interludes of an afternoon.

This firm is again brightening Glasgow's tea hour during this week, showing the latest autumn and winter fashions in their two restaurants. Incidentally, where a mere male looks quite out of place and unusually uncomfortable at the ordinary type of parade here he can take a cup of tea without appearing out of place.

A feature is being made of fashions for the younger generation particularly of models for the "first dance." Charming in its simplicity is a rose-pink taffeta dress with net of the same shade veiling the shoulders.

For the more sophisticated maid there is one of flower-printed crepe, the little short sleeves gathered into bands of fuchsia velvet, and another of deep wine-red faille relies on its picturesque cut—full skirt from the waist and balloon puff sleeves—for effect.

DANCING IN DARK COLOURS

Typical of the mode are two distinctive dance frocks for the young woman. Both emphasise how attractive dark colours can be on the slim and youthful. One is of brown taffeta striped in white, the cut of the frock showing diagonal stripes on the bodice and the reverse on the skirt. This is a two-purpose frock, the little short jacket with huge e-bow sleeves giving it a formal appearance, while without the coat it is an ideal dance or dinner gown.

The other is fashioned of black crepe woven with a minute gold design, the décolletage, square in front, being supported by velvet shoulder straps, which carry over to an oval-shaped back.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

Shanghai, Oct. 12. The question of holding a great world missionary conference in India or the Far East will be considered at the meeting of the International Missionary Council in Massachusetts. Several missionary leaders in Britain are to attend this meeting, at which National Christian Councils and missionary organizations of some twenty different countries will be represented. Reports of the work of the International Missionary Council since the last meeting in Germany in 1932 will be presented, and plans will be laid for the next few years. To be on the lines and of the dimensions of the Jerusalem conference in 1928, the date suggested is the autumn of 1938. In order that the young Churches of India and the Far East could be well represented the proposed conference would probably be held in the East, and invitations have already been received from the National Christian Councils of Japan, China, and India.

U. S. OFFICIALS ON TOUR

Mr. Dern To Visit Nanking

Nanking, Oct. 15.

A group of high officials of the American Government, including Mr. John Garner, Vice-President, Mr. George Dern, Secretary of War, and several Senators, are expected to visit Shanghai in the latter part of this month while on their way to Manila to participate in the inaugural ceremony of the Philippine Republic.

It is learned that Mr. John Garner and several senators are expected to arrive in Shanghai from Washington on October 29. They will stay at the Port City for one day, following which they will proceed to the Philippine Islands.

Mr. George Dern is expected to reach Shanghai on October 22 on board a gunboat. The following day he will leave for Nanking in company with Mr. Nelson Johnson, the American Ambassador to China. On October 23, at 3 o'clock, he will call on Mr. Wang Ching-wel, President of Executive Yuan. He will spend the whole of October 24 in sight-seeing, and will return to Shanghai on October 25 to resume his journey to Manila.

The American Ambassador will leave Peking for Nanking on October 18. After arriving at the Capital, he will make a brief stay to interview the high Chinese officials, following which, it is learned, he will proceed to the Port City on October 18, in order to accompany Mr. George Dern to the Capital.

TIENTSIN A. D. C.

Shanghai, Oct. 12.

At a meeting of the General Committee of the Tientsin Amateur Dramatic Club, Mr. V. W. Stapleton-Cotton was appointed president with Messrs. L. T. Beddow as honorary treasurer and J. S. Jones as honorary secretary. The committee for 1935-6 is: V. Stapleton-Cotton, president; J. Twyford Thomas; Captain M. Kortright; L. T. Beddow, hon. treasurer; J. S. Jones, hon. secretary. Captain Kortright will produce a drama entitled "Ten Minute Alibi" which he expects to place before the Tientsin public towards the end of November next. At the Club Concordia Mr. R. S. Campbell who, for so many years has guided the good ship "Thespian," has retired from committee work. In 1936, the T.A.D.C. will celebrate its 50th anniversary or Diamond Jubilee, and there is every prospect of a musical comedy being produced which will entail a cast of some 45 performers, details of which are now under preparation.

ARE PEDESTRIANS PEOPLE?

If people paid for folly on the spot wisdom would more frequently guide their steps. In a nutshell this is the philosophy back of Madrid's municipal measures under which pedestrians may be fined by policemen for poaching on parts of the highways intended for other traffic. If the puffy pedestrian waxes uncivil in his argument with the officer and begins waving his arms about frantically, he will be marched off to the "Comisaria" and required to pay a still larger fine—presumably for impersonating a traffic policeman.

Up to now, it's just a new Spanish custom. But in the near future, no doubt, it will be adopted in all forward-looking countries with backward-looking pedestrians. Not that it really matters which way a pedestrian looks, for any motorist worthy of his driver's license can manoeuvre his car in such a way as to attack the pedestrian on the unguarded side. The really commendable aspect of this law—as all automobilists and, in a more benign way, the automobile industry itself, will agree—is that it recognizes that the pedestrian must go.

What motorist has not been embarrassed, having gone along "just minding his own business," to hear a pedestrian shrieking excitedly at him from a perch on the front bumper? Or what motorist having just parked his car and begun to pick his way on foot across the street, has not been startled to find some erstwhile pedestrian bearing down on him in a large and fast motorcar, much indeed in the manner of a full fledged motorist?

Whether he is driving, then, or whether he is walking, the motorist finds the pedestrian endangering his tranquility. And in more ways than this, for the pedestrian pays no charge for the number plate, seems not at all furtive—except in Madrid—in the presence of a policeman, and has no parking problems, any of which reflections can end a day's peace of mind for a motorist.

In Spain they are on the way to solving the problem. Fines are a fine first step. Pedestrian taxes no doubt will follow, for two reasons. First, pedestrians are fast becoming the only citizens who can afford to pay taxes. Second, because if pedestrians must go, the up-to-date and yet orthodox way to be rid of them is to tax them away.

NORTH-WEST FRONTIER.

The Upper Mohmand headman submitted to the Governor of the North-West Frontier at a Jirga held at Wuchajawar, following the recent incident in which a number of British casualties were suffered.

Replying to a request for peace, the Governor explained the Government policy and demands in a speech delivered in Pushtu, illustrated by local proverbs.

The road to Nakakki on the frontier is nearing completion, and all troops are expected to return to barracks early in November.

SEPARATION OF NORTH CHINA

Reported Japanese Decisions

Dairen, Oct. 13.

It is learned from a reliable source that the recent military conference agreed to rush plans for conversion of North China into a Sino-Japanese co-operation area and request the Chinese Government to uphold all causes of trouble there, falling which the Japanese Army will insist on separation of North China from Nanking, including withdrawal of Central Government troops and complete severance of financial relations.

It was also decided that "Japan should deal with Nanking but only on the condition of its dual diplomacy, co-operation with Japan on the one hand and that resistance on the other hand should be abandoned."

CESAREWITCH RESULT

Close Victory For Near Relation

London, Oct. 18.

The following was the result of the Cesarewitch run at Newmarket to-day:

1—Near Relation (22/1) ..... E. Smith
2—Night Cap (25/1) ..... H. Sibbitt
3—Hoplit (100/7) ..... H. Wragg
Twenty nine near Near Relation won by a head, three quarters of a length separating second and third.

The list of probabilities was the same as published before with the following riders filling the vacancies, namely, Messrs (Gunn), Scusi (A. Burns), Vimy Ridge (Bartlam) Volinn (Wing) and Option Money (Sadgrove). The favourite Tommack was 2 doubtfully starting owing to stiffness in the hind leg owing to a slight cut. Although the "vet" stated this morning that the injury was trifling, Gordon Richards said that he did not know anything. Later it was stated that the horse was suffering from a bruised heel and was almost certain to run and the trainer was hoping for the best. Tommack was among the twenty nine starters.

AIR AUSTEN'S FUTURE

Special Air Mail Service.

London, Sept. 28.

There are rumours that Sir Austen Chamberlain, who has just been nominated for election as Chancellor of Reading University, is being sounded about joining the Government after the general election in a non-departmental post.

His many friends and admirers—I should say that Sir Austen commands greater respect and attention in the House of Commons than any other private member—will regret to know that, so far, all events, there is no foundation for these rumours. I have that on the best authority.

The constitution of the next Cabinet is a pretty long jump ahead, of course, and much can happen between now and then.

TWICE HE GAVE WAY

Sir Austen will be 72 next month. Four years ago he relinquished any claim to office in the present Government in favour of a younger man. He had been First Lord of the Admiralty in the brief preceding Cabinet.

He might have been Prime Minister in place of Mr. Bonar Law, but in his case loyalty and honesty were far superior to ambition.

A "COMMONS" MAN

He might have had an earldom on two occasions—when he returned from helping to make the Locarno Pact, and when he retired from office in 1931.

But Sir Austen's interest and affection lie with the House of Commons. Moreover, there has always been a strong bond between him and his constituency, West Birmingham which a peerage would have severed.

SIR S. HOARE'S ADDRESS

British People Uphold Covenant

London, Oct. 13.

The Foreign Secretary, Sir Samuel Hoare, broadcast an address this afternoon to the Fifth Annual Women's Conference on current problems which is meeting in New York. He said he hoped his speech in the League Assembly on September 11 had established beyond doubt that the British people were solidly behind the Covenant in a determination to resist all acts of unprovoked aggression and to substitute peaceful methods of settlement for war.

He had tried to look beyond the immediate political difficulties to the causes of bitterness and strife, and had selected for special attention among the causes to be removed the question of the control and distribution of colonial raw materials. He had suggested it would be well to anticipate a controversy by examining this question without unnecessary delay.

TRADE BARRIERS

Sir Samuel Hoare then commented to his hearers the recent publication of the Economic Section of the League Secretariat called, "Remarks on the present phase of international economic relations," describing it as a sermon on the folly of our times. He cited the statement, "the maddening from which the world is now suffering is no longer entirely a crisis but rather an inability of countries to co-ordinate their several efforts to emerge from the crisis" and himself continued, "I fully agree. It seems to me that the lowering of barriers to international trade, slow and difficult as the task must inevitably be, is one of the most fundamental of the tasks of the present time. It is a task that must be persistently and courageously pursued, not only by ministers of commerce who desire to promote the economic welfare of the world, but also more by all those who wish to promote international friendship and serve the great cause of peace."

SAME IDEALS

The Foreign Secretary referred appreciatively to the constant advocacy of these ideals by the American Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, and the sympathetic remarks in the same sense made by the French Minister of Commerce, M. Bonnet, in the League Assembly. He recalled that when the Assembly adopted a resolution recommending freer trade between nations, Mr. Hull had sent a message cordially supporting the League's endeavours.

It was a source of great encouragement that the Governments of the three great trading nations were looking in the same direction, but the road ahead would not be easy. "It is never easy to take the long view as against the short and remember the ultimate good of all rather than the immediate advantages of each."

NEW WORLD

In conclusion, Sir Samuel Hoare said in democratic statesmen must appeal to the understanding and imagination of the people, for if they could not carry the people with them their individual wisdom was of no avail. "This is why I welcome the chance of speaking to a great American audience. I want to convince you that we in Great Britain stand for the abolition of war and the mentality of war, whether on the field of battle or on the field of commerce, industry and labour. We want a new world and a new order in human relations in which peace and justice, trade and intercourse, shall be secure, and I am sure that these are also your wishes and ideals."

LAWN BOWLERS MEET AT DINNER

Convivial Gathering At The K.C.C.

"I have great pleasure in handing back the cup you brought from Shanghai and are taking back to Shanghai," said Mr. H. Nish, President of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association when addressing Mr. J. Munro, the Shanghai skip, at the Interport Dinner which was held at the Kowloon Cricket Club last night.

In handing the Hong Kong L. B. A. Interport flag, Mr. Nish made mention of the fact that Shanghai had won it for the second year in succession, and added "I hope Shanghai will appreciate your effort, as much as we do."

There was a large and representative gathering of bowling enthusiasts at the dinner, the most prominent of whom were: the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest (Colonial Secretary), Commander C. G. Sedgwick, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell (President of the K.C.C.), Eng. Captain R. C. Huggill, Mr. H. Nish (President of the H.K.L.B.A.), Mr. C. J. Tachi (Vice-President of the H.K.L.B.A.), Mr. C. B. Hosking (Hon. Secretary of the H.K.L.B.A.), Mr. G. E. F. Thompson (Hon. Treasurer of the H.K.L.B.A.), Mr. E. Abraham (Vice-President of the K.C.C.) and Mr. F. P. Franklin.

The Shanghai visitors were represented by: Messrs. J. Munro (Captain), C. W. Glover, C. Richards, J. W. Briery, W. Train, and J. W. Lopes.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH

Addressing the gathering after dinner, Mr. Nish said that before he made any remarks regarding the Interport series, he as President of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association had great regret in reporting the illness of Sir Thomas Southern. Sir Thomas, the speaker said, was a keen bowler, and but for his unfortunate illness would have taken a greater interest in the interport games, and would surely have been present at the dinner.

He had also to thank the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, the Officer Administering the Government for his presence at the second interport match. The speaker had been personally informed by the Hon. Mr. Smith that the latter had thoroughly enjoyed the game, and but for a previous engagement would have been present at the dinner last night.

The speaker said that it was the accepted idea that lawn bowls was an old man's game. This must be said to be an old idea, and might also be said to be quite true. But to be proficient in the game, it was one essential for one to commence early.

"TUG OF WAR"

In 1918, a letter was received from Shanghai inviting a team to visit that port for a game. Hong Kong readily accepted this invitation, and sent the "four stalwarts" composed of Messrs. "Charlie" Bond, W. G. Gerrard, "Dave" Harvey and W. Russell. When they landed in Shanghai the first words that were spoken to them were "We asked for a lawn bowls side, not a tug-of-war team!" Shanghai won that game. This year Shanghai had again won the interport series, making it two years in succession.

When one considered that the visitors had travelled some 825 miles from pier head to pier head, and played on strange greens and in strange surroundings it was all the more credit to them to have won the first interport by the margin that they recorded.

With regard to the second interport, the speaker said "I am sure the Shanghai Skip was never at ease until the last head was played." In congratulating Mr. J. Munro "and his crew" the speaker said that there was one great point he noticed in the skip's game—"he always guarded his opponent." Whereas Hong Kong were continually saying that they must get a 5-4 or a three, Shanghai were content to get a one!

In respect of the third interport, the speaker said that Mr. U. M. Omar as everyone present was aware, was one of finest skips in the Colony, and played a fine game that very afternoon against Shanghai. He was ably supported by Mr. H. A. Alves "who played the game of his life." All in all, throughout the whole series, both Shanghai and Hong Kong pulled their weight.

After handing the Prentice Cup and the Hong Kong Interport Flag to the visiting skip, an expression of thanks were made by the President for the good work of the entertainment committee and the selection committee. Also included in his remarks was the untiring work put in by the Hon. Secretary to make this visit of Shanghai a very successful one.

SHANGHAI CAPTAIN

Replying on behalf of the visitors, Mr. J. Munro, the Shanghai captain said that it was his great privilege and honour to say a few words in reply to the expression of congratulations regarding their stay in Hong Kong.

He had to thank the Association for the fine reception they had enjoyed and especially in this connection he had to mention the work of the Hon. Secretary, who was admirable in every sense of the word. "Our success, in some manner of speaking, was largely due to him."

To sum up everything, "Shanghai made their effort early, and Hong Kong made their effort late."

It had been a great pleasure to meet Hong Kong, and to meet Hong Kong bowlers. "I must congratulate the members of my team for their very loyal efforts in our success. All the members of this party are old friends of very old standing" added the captain.

The value of the interport lay in the fact that it kept up the standard of bowling. Not only in this respect was it beneficial, but the value lay also in their friendships it fostered. Long after the score was forgotten, one still remembered with joy the friends one made at the various games played.

The speaker said that, provided both the Shanghai and Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Associations were to join force and form a Far Eastern Association, the scheme he thought would be one that should have every encouragement for then players from the East could take part in the Empire Games.

GIFT TO PRESIDENT

Mr. Nish was then the recipient of a handsome gift, which the Shanghai captain said he had great pleasure in presenting. He then asked the members of his team to rise and drink to the prosperity of the H. K. L. B. A.

Before closing he said that he had only one further suggestion to make that the future visiting teams be only called upon to play on ten days, in which three days would be occupied in playing official interport games, and two others, a zone game against Hong Kong and Kowloon respectively. It was essential, however, that they be given a day's rest, in between all the games! (Laughter).

Mr. Hosking, Hon. Secretary then rose to propose a toast to the guests to which the Hon. Mr. Forrest replied.

During the evening several songs and amusing sketches were presented by the guests, all of which were well received.

PREMIER MEETS CRITICS

London, Oct. 15.

The Prime Minister, accompanied by the Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, received to-day two small deputations of Conservative members of both Houses of Parliament, one brought by Mr. L. M. S. Amery, and the other representing the Imperial Policy Group.

The purpose of their visit was to put before the Premier their views on foreign policy, with special reference to the Arab-Abyssinia dispute and "its treatment at Geneva."

Mr. Amery has in recent speeches given voice to some misgivings regarding recent developments in the international situation, and it is assumed he explained his doubts at the interview to-day. He is also expected to speak in the debate on foreign affairs when the House of Commons re-assembles on October 22.

ETHIOPIANS MASS TROOPS TO RECAPTURE AKSUM

"Holy War" Decision WAR MINISTER LEADING THE ARMY

Ogaden Counter-Attack

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages, Ordinance, 1901. Received, October 16, 7:30 p.m.)

Addis Ababa, Oct. 16.

The proclamation of "holy war" with the object of recapturing the holy city of Aksum, is reported here to have been decided by Negus in the course of an audience granted by him to Abuna, the supreme head of the Coptic Church.

An Abyssinian offensive is stated to have already begun in the north west of Aksum near the river Setit, on the Eritrean border whither reinforcements consisting of 50,000 picked troops are hurrying under the command of War Minister Mulugueta.

The Commander-in-Chief of the southern front, General Nassibu, whose headquarters are in the town of Jijiga, has ordered a general counter-attack in the province of Ogaden, and according to despatches here severe fighting has already begun which has brought the Italian advance on Jijiga and Harar to a standstill.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Addis Ababa, Oct. 16.

No actions of any importance were reported from the Eritrean front with the exception of a few bombs dropped by Italian planes on the Abyssinian lines, without however, it is stated here, doing any considerable damage.

Great activity is being displayed in the Abyssinian positions behind the southern front, and it is reported that a great offensive, is being planned before the Italians receive their reinforcements, required for their projected drive.—Transocean Kuo Min.

THE WAR FRONTS

London, Oct. 16.

The position on the Northern front in Abyssinia is that the Italians occupy Adowa, Adigrat and Aksum, maintaining a line seventy miles long joining these places, while advance guards have progressed far on the road to Makale, the next objective.

Meanwhile Ras Seyoum has concentrated his troops south of Aksum reportedly with the intention to attempt recapture of the city.

Communications between the front and Addis Ababa are very difficult. The aeroplane is the only means of travel and therefore circumstances are ideal for rumours.

The Abyssinians have not yet engaged in any pitched battle and have contented themselves by slowly retreating with small bands and harassing the Italian advance guards. Evidently their intention is to avoid an open battle until a favourable moment.

The position in the southern front is very obscure. Fighting appears to have occurred round Walwal and Gergolubi, both sides now reported to be preparing to attack.—Reuter.

ENTRY INTO AKSUM

Rome, Oct. 15.

A despatch from the Italian Army at Asmara states that troops entering Aksum found a huge store of grain collected for military use by the Abyssinians. General De Bono ordered it to be distributed among the people who received it joyfully.

Troops entered Aksum without firing a shot after first surrounding it. The occupation force consisted of six battalions, the third naval brigade, with three batteries of artillery and one squadron of light tanks.

The aerodrome in the vicinity of the city will be converted into a major air base.

Other chiefs in Entiselo and Adowa sectors, some of whom are under Ras Seyoum's orders, are reported to have submitted themselves to the Italians.—Reuter.

AIR BOMBING

Diredawa, Oct. 16.

Italian white troops estimated at about 10,000 are being transferred from Italian Somaliland to Eritrea, according to reports from Ogaden where considerable activity is going on.

Italian planes are reported to have dropped 300 bombs which killed five and wounded 20 Abyssinians in raids at Tifar and Khatana, small towns in Ogaden.

Two of the planes are reported to have made forced landings in Abyssinian territory. The pilots, who were not hurt, were captured.—Reuter.

RAS SEYOUN ACTIVE

Addis Ababa, Oct. 15.

It is unofficially reported that Ras Seyoum, the Ethiopians northern commander, has received

ATTITUDE OF GREECE

Statement By The Premier

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Athens, Oct. 16.

The Greek Premier, General Kondylis stressed the importance of reciprocal and economic interests between Greece and Germany for which he professed great admiration, in the course of an interview given to a representative of a German news agency. It was his desire, added the Premier, to promote the imports of German industrial goods to Greece.

Turning to the new Government's foreign policy Kondylis emphasised his determination to maintain and further promote friendly relations with all the neighbouring states. These were assured in the case of Turkey and Rumania by the Balkan Union, and every effort would be made to arrive at an amicable settlement of the questions still at issue with Bulgaria and Albania.

Greece has also desired to continue friendly relations with Italy, to which she is bound by many ties, and this attitude would not be altered by the fact of being obliged as a League member to participate in the sanctions.

The Government's immediate task lay in the reorganisation of the state in the form fitted by the present day conditions, and taking measures for maintenance of the conservative regimes, as well as increasing the armaments.—Transocean Kuo Min.

SOME COMMENT ON GLASGOW SPEECH

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Rome, Oct. 16.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain's Glasgow speech, produced a forcible reaction on all sections of the Italian press. Mr. Chamberlain's hint, that one should not nurse any illusions about the duration of the crisis because the world stands at the beginning and not at the end of the conflict, and that a subsequent development of the crisis might assume a somewhat grave character was interpreted by L'Avanti! Fascista, in that one must be prepared for the proclamation of a blockade which would inevitably result in war.

This paper regards Mr. Chamberlain's declaration that the British Government must do everything "to preserve peace for humanity" as nothing but "a sentimental appeal to the old women of both sexes" who hate war and love a quiet life in a golden home and are convinced that the great European war was the last of all the great conflicts.

In reality, economic interests of the great British capitalist class are behind the Government, but the British people must reflect that it will stand alone or almost so when after the economic sanctions collapse like a house of cards, and the British Government proceeds to blockade as a trump card.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ITALIAN ARRIVES WITH LARGE FORTUNE

Addis Ababa, Oct. 16.

Unguarded and accompanied by his wife and three children, Engineer Bussotti, the last Italian private citizen in Abyssinia reached here with 130 lbs. of platinum valued at £13,000. He made a fortnight's trek from Wollega to the capital. He has since left Italy via the Djibouti Railway.—Reuter.

WAVERING ATTITUDE OF FRANCE

Geneva Fears British Naval Action

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages, Ordinance, 1901. Received, October 16, 7:30 p.m.)

Geneva, Oct. 16.

Fears are expressed here that Britain will proceed to blockade Italy without further ado, since too much time has been lost in applying the sanctions, and because of the change of attitude by the French delegation here.

At the commencement of the deliberations of the Co-ordinating Committee and its various sub-committees, the French delegates attempted to exert a retarding influence on the proceedings, and now they are displaying a zealous interest in speedy and effective action being taken.

A report was circulated on Tuesday that M. Laval had demanded a ten-day interval in the sanctions proceedings in view of his attempt to bring about a renewal of Three-Power negotiations, thus narrowly negating a definite denial by French League circles.

Although M. Laval's last move is attracting much attention here, nobody believes for a moment that there is any prospect for its success.

The French Premier, it is stated, made no proposals of his own but merely urged Signor Mussolini to inform him of his minimum conditions in the hope that they might provide a basis for negotiations acceptable to Britain. He warned Il Duce of the dangers attending the continuance of the Abyssinian conflict.

When informing Britain of his action, Laval asked for a period of ten days for carrying it to a conclusion, but the British Government, it is stated, is understood to have stipulated that Signor Mussolini must give his answer before Friday at the latest.

At the same time the British Government demanded that in the event of a blockade being forced, France should put all her Mediterranean naval ports at England's disposal, particularly Bizerta and Ajaccio on Corsica.—Transocean Kuo Min.

WARNING TO FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 16.

M. Laval's allegedly dilatory attitude regarding the sanctions is creating considerable dissatisfaction in British official circles according to the foreign editors of "L'Ouvre" and "Echo de Paris." Madam Tabouis and Pertinax, who both report from Geneva that League circles affirm that Mr. Laval, in the course of his prolonged interview with the British Ambassador in Paris, replied evasively to the question of whether France is prepared to fulfil her obligations under the League Covenant in the event of Italian aggression against Britain.

M. Laval is said to have contented himself with promising to "study this problem" and to have urged the British Government to put an end to "mobilisation in the Mediterranean."

Pertinax states that the French Government's attitude does not satisfactorily meet British expectations, and he goes on to point out that the existing divergencies between the two countries may entail disagreeable consequences for France in the future.

The British delegation at Geneva, so Pertinax adds, is resolved to have the sanctions concerning Italy's export trade approved by the League at the latest, next Saturday, if necessary in the teeth of French opposition whereby, according to Pertinax, Britain is assured of the support of the Little Entente, the Balkan League and Soviet Russia.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ANGLO-FRENCH TALK

London, Oct. 16.

It is learnt that M. Laval in an interview with the British Ambassador on October 14 raised the point whether the situation will be improved by a reduction of British forces to more normal strength and also referred to Signor Mussolini's suggestion in an interview with a French journalist that the Italian forces in Libya might also be reduced.

The Ambassador gave no direct reply on behalf of the British Government, but it is thought possible that the matter might be considered by the Cabinet.

FLEET CONCENTRATION

It is pointed out that the Fleet was concentrated in the Mediterranean before the League applied Article sixteen. The question of reduction therefore is a matter for Britain alone to decide. It is stated that there is no question of an interview affecting Anglo-French relations which are very close and it is recognised that M. Laval is anxious for an early termination of the war.—Reuter.

MR. EDEN'S PROPOSAL

Geneva, October 16.

The text of Mr. Eden's proposal on embargo on Italian exports states that the governments will prohibit importation of all goods consigned to, produced or manufactured in Italy and Italian possessions.

Existing contracts will not be excepted from the embargo, but goods en route will be excepted similarly to personal belongings of travellers from Italy and Italian possessions.

Italian products of which 25 per cent value has been added by the processes of other countries will be exempted.

Mr. Eden remarked that 70 per cent of Italian exports are destined to League countries. Although Italy has been endeavouring to reduce imports of luxuries, there has been a constant drain of gold reserves and the value of the Lira was constantly falling.

Continuation of war was bound to reduce the purchasing power of Italy and an additional embargo would affect her gold resources.

Mr. Eden's proposal which was submitted to the economic sub-committee was supported by Rumania, Russia, Sweden and Turkey without opposition.—Reuter.

UNITY OR SEPARATION

Paris, October 15.

The "Paris Soir" publishes an interview which the journalist Bertrand de Jouvenel had with the British former Foreign Minister, Sir Austen Chamberlain, which comes almost at the same time as the Glasgow speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, which has attracted wide attention.

Sir Austen Chamberlain's utterance carries great weight here because he has always been staunchly pro-French, hence the blunt statement that France must at the present juncture carry out her obligations has created a profound impression here.

"We are surprised and mortified by the manifest tardiness and egoistic deliberations which seem to characterise the attitude of France in this matter," says Sir Austen Chamberlain.

"It is not a question of knowing whether the source of the Nile will remain in safety, but whether a new set of international relationships will perish or live."

If the League of Nations covenant triumphs, then a precedent will be established which will determine Britain's policy in the future. If, however, other signatories of the League of Nations covenant do not carry out their duty at this decisive hour, then Britain will consider herself free from all her obligations in Europe.—Transocean Kuo Min.

MARSHAL BADOGLIO AT ASMARA

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Asmara, Oct. 15.

The Italian chief of Staff, Field Marshal Badoglio arrived at Asmara on Tuesday and immediately went to the Italian headquarters from where he will proceed to the front.

It is understood that the inactivity of the last few days in the North front was due to Badoglio's desire to inspect the situation before further operations were taken.

Informed quarters here consider that his arrival may be the signal for a renewed Italian offensive in Kattowitz.

One month's gap and costs without the option of a fine was the penalty meted out to Pustulak, the editor responsible for the sensationalist paper, "Polonia," who appeared in Court for the third time, charged with publishing and shamelessly insulting the caricature of the German Chancellor in this case in the issue of May 23. The Court confirmed the order of the confiscation of the whole issue of the paper in which the objectionable matter occurred and refused the release of existing copies.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ETHIOPIAN MINISTER'S STATEMENT

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Brussels, Oct. 15.

"Abyssinia can hold out, if we have to, for fifteen years if necessary, and victory will be hers in the end" declared Tekie Hawariate to pressmen in the Belgian capital, where he is staying at present before returning to Abyssinia in order to take active army command in preference to representing his country at Geneva.

The negotiations between Italy and Abyssinia under the present circumstances were impossible, he continued, as the Italians must first completely withdraw from the occupied territories.

Abyssinia's former minister in Paris then expressed satisfaction at the raising of the embargo on munitions to Abyssinia by the Belgian Government, which had enabled the Abyssinians to reduce the disparity between the Italian and their own armament to some extent. It is assumed that the purpose of Hawariate's visit there, is to place orders with the Belgian armament firms.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ROME PRECAUTIONS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Rome, Oct. 15.

The British Consulate and business premises of the branch office of Barclay's Bank and the British Book Shop on the Piazza di Spagna was placed under protection of a strong detachment of police, because of the threatening attitude taken by demonstrators. The measures taken for the protection of the British Embassy are still maintained but the guard is of a less conspicuous form. The homes and the persons of the Embassy staff are under the guard of secret Police.—Transocean Kuo Min.

HONG KONG WINS LAWN BOWLS

Earlier Defeats Avenged

Skips' Brilliant Display

BY "JACK-HIGH"

Hong Kong's third Interport Lawn Bowls team avenged the Colony's earlier defeats at the hands of Shanghai when they trounced the Northerners yesterday by 24 shots to 11. At one stage of the game the Colony looked like walking away with the match, when at the 13th head Shanghai had scored 4 to the Colony's 17. Thereafter the Northern players staged a somewhat belated comeback but to no avail.

Hong Kong played with Bradbury as No. 3 and H. A. Alves No. 2. The players, one and all, indulged in a standard of bowls higher than that seen in earlier games.

Both the skips were seen to good advantage kept the spectators spell bound with their accurate bowls. Omar was the better of the two, but it must be conceded that he had just that element of luck.

Lopes has been seen to play better bowls than his displayed yesterday. He was not the same Lopes who helped Shanghai to win the rubber. His deliveries yesterday were either short or narrow but he did however send down some good woods.

RAMSAY CONSISTENT

J. V. Ramsay was about the most consistent player on view. His bowling yesterday at times was uncanny. Seldom did he place his woods more than a foot from the jack.

H. A. Alves the Regelo skip somewhat overshadowed his more experienced and older player—J. Munro in the No. 2 position, and had never been seen to better advantage in competitive bowls before. He drew rounds of applause from the spectators for his clever drawings, and time and again he had Munro beaten in this department. Alves on the day's play fully justified his inclusion in the team. Munro was not at all happy against his younger opponent. Though he sent down a couple of good woods his form on the day's play was not convincing.

Shanghai had the better over Hong Kong in the third position when C. Richards had the better of B. W. Bradbury. The Hong Kong player started very shakily at the beginning, and his deliveries were either too short or narrow. He improved towards the end and was instrumental in saving Hong Kong several times at the crucial moment. Due to no doubt to the poor form displayed by his opposite number C. Richards played a really good game. He was responsible for laying the foundation for his team.

THE SKIPS

Matching brilliance with brilliance U. M. Omar and C. W. Glover had a hard tussle throughout, and each was in turn applauded for his smart efforts. Glover had to thank his No. 3 for the good work he put in.

At the beginning Omar was playing a better brand of bowls than Glover but the Shanghai skip came in for his share of the game towards the latter part of the game and matched Omar's deadly bowling with accuracy. On the whole Omar played a slightly better game than Glover but with just that bit of "foes" in his favour.

THE GAME

Hong Kong claimed a single on the 1st head after Alves had laid two good woods. Richards came in to take the first shot away but failed to block with his next delivery. Omar then came in to trail the jack and once more Hong Kong remained with the first shot.

Hong Kong's Nos. 1 and 2 sent down heavy woods and so did Bradbury. Shanghai's No. 3 came in with a beauty and Hong Kong's skip came back for the first shot.

On the 3rd head both Alves and Ramsay came in each with a good wood. Glover drove and saved the third shot. Omar came in with his next two deliveries and Glover failed to draw allowing Hong Kong to get away with a three.

HOCKEY

Medway Defeat Club

In a last game of hockey played at King's Park yesterday H.M.S. Medway defeated the Hong Kong Hockey Club First Eleven by one goal to nil.

The Medway got going early and took the lead which they maintained throughout. The Club were rather unfortunate in not being able to equalise as they were pressing during most of the second half.

£1,250 Tournament

(Social Air Mail Services)

London, Sept. 25.

A. Padgham, of Sundridge Park, was again splendidly steady in beating P. Alliss (Beaconsfield) by three up and two to play in the final round of the "News of the World" £1,250 Professional Tournament, which was played over 36 holes at the Royal Mid-Surrey Club at Richmond. Both Padgham and Alliss are leaving for America this morning with the other members of the British Ryder Cup team.

Padgham played well enough in the morning, as a score of 69 will testify, but Alliss was getting in the first putts and led almost throughout the round. Alliss twice held an advantage of three holes, and for the first 10 holes he was five under 2's on the greens. In this respect he played gloriously; he needed only 30 putts as against Padgham's 34 for the first 18 holes, yet Padgham fought back to bravely that he was no more than one hole behind at the end of the round.

THE TURNING POINT

The real test came in the afternoon, and at last Alliss's putting was not what it had been. Wide with his driving and too far with his approach shots meant that Padgham was in front after two holes had been played; he turned three up after being out in 32, and he went farther ahead with one putt at the 10th. No one can have Padgham four up over eight holes and hope to win, but Alliss tried doggedly and won back two holes. That was as far as he went, however, for Padgham, becoming dour at the 15th, won the match at the next hole. Here Alliss was left with an eight-ward putt to keep the game alive, but he was walking across to congratulate Padgham almost before the ball, which was just not strong enough, had stopped rolling.

Padgham, had quickly drawn level in the afternoon round, for his drive to the first hole finished at the back of the green, the longest of the week. Both were to the left of the second green with their second shots, but Alliss failed with a four-foot putt and fell behind for the first time in the match. Padgham was now full of confidence, and here was no hesitancy as he calmly holed out from 3 yards at the fourth to become two up. Alliss had cruel luck at the short fifth. His tee-shot stopped a foot from the hole, but Padgham, almost holed from 10 yards for a 2, laid a stymie; Alliss struck the rim of the hole and stayed out. Padgham was short with his first putt at the sixth, but Alliss knocked his ball nearer the hole, which was halved. At the short eighth Alliss, from 12 yards, again struck Padgham's ball, the hole was halved, and at the ninth Alliss went too far with his second shot and was three down.

So the match went on with Alliss leaving a sturdy effort too late. He was barely two yards off the flag at the short 11th, but failed with a putt for a 2, which he would have not missed in the morning. However, Alliss won back the 13th, holing from 4 yards for 3, after Padgham had been bunkered, and Padgham lost another hole of his lead at the 14th, being bunkered from the tee. Then Padgham had the match nearly won at the 15th, where Alliss's second shot landed in a bunker, and a half-topped shot by Padgham finished on the green. After two good shots to

HARBOUR RACE WON BY LAWRENCE

Miss Thirlwell Wins Ladies Event

NO NEW RECORDS

Ideal weather conditions prevailed yesterday, when the competitors faced the starter for the Colony's annual Harbour Race, which was conducted by the Victoria Recreation Club. As expected, W. Lawrence was the first to get home, thus repeating his performance of last year. However, the Colony's leading all-round swimmer did not have matters quite his own way; F. Roza Pereira issued a stern challenge throughout the race, and the two were together for three quarters of the distance, although Lawrence finished about thirty yards ahead.

The Harbour Race title for ladies this year goes to Miss R. Thirlwell—a newcomer to this event. In all there were only fifteen competitors, ten men and five ladies. All completed the distance. At the finish, competitors were heartily cheered, especially tiny Miss Ip Chui Man, and Miss Kan Fung Wha. C. J. Cooke, the veteran, again participated, being placed sixth.

THE RACE

The majority of swimmers decided to swim towards the direction of the Naval Yard, thus choosing to swim against the current in the initial stage. Ng Kit Man and Miss R. Thirlwell preferred to swim a straight course. Lawrence and Roza Pereira swam side by side for three quarters of the race. When approaching the Dockyard, Lawrence drew away from Roza Pereira and finished the 16th Alliss lost a difficult chance to save the match.

14.—Miss Poon Kwai ..... 43 51-3/5
15.—Miss Kan Fung Wha ..... 44 41-4/5

Following the Harbour Race, the prizes won during the season were distributed by Lady MacGregor. Mr. F. W. T. Ross, prior to asking Lady MacGregor to give away the prizes, made a comprehensive review of the season's activities. He said that the Club enjoyed a particularly successful season, and referred to the excellent swimming seen whilst the Shanghai swimmers were here. He referred to the excellent records set up by W. Lawrence, and remarked that with more practice in "turning," he felt sure that Lawrence could equal or even beat the Shanghai swimming ace, Hammond, should the two meet again.

At the end of the prize-distribution, Lady MacGregor announced that she was prepared to donate a prize for the first girl under 14 years of age to come in first in the next Harbour Race.

FLIGHT TO BATAVIA TO TELEPHONE

A strange story reaches me from Singapore, writes a correspondent. The other day an officer of the Royal Air Force was forced to fly from Singapore to Batavia in order to telephone to his mother in England who was dangerously ill and wished to hear her son's voice.

Apart from the telephone charges, he must have spent the best part of £20 on his flight, for he was, of course, not allowed to fly a Government machine, but had to travel by the Dutch K.L.M. He was unable to telephone Europe from any station in British Malaya. There is not more than a shadowy prospect that he will be able to do so in the future.

There is a radio telephone service both to Europe and to America from all the important centres of the Dutch East Indies. Singapore, the key of our whole Far Eastern defence scheme, has none.

The position seems still more extraordinary when one recalls remarks made by Mr. Ormsby-Gore, then Under Secretary for the Colonies, during his Malayan trip in 1928.

At a dinner in Singapore he announced complacently that thanks to the courtesy of the Dutch, he had been able to carry on a long telephone conversation with the Secretary of State and with his wife from his hotel in Java.

His remarks were summarised in his official reports. They have remained there for seven years.

PUNJABIS WIN FAST GAME

On the Marina ground yesterday, the Punjabis defeated the Indian Police in a friendly hockey match by 2 goals to nil. The game was played at a fast pace throughout with the Punjabis dominating the game.

The Police would have been beaten by a bigger margin, but for the stout resistance of their defence who were playing splendid game.

The first half ended with the Punjabis one goal up.

In the second half the Police forwards attacked strongly, but the Punjabis backs were in form and broke up their repeated attacks.

The second of the Punjabis goal came just before the end of the game, when a misunderstanding between the backs allowed them to score their second goal.

Fifty Years Ago

(Special Air Mail Service)
London, Sept. 25.

There they are, hanging on the wall before me, the faded photographs of my old School. First Fifteens for the seasons 1885-1888. Yes, there we are, three full teams of us, very self-conscious and "chesty." Fifty years ago.

We wear knee-breeches, buckled over knitted stockings, woollen jerseys fitting tightly round the neck to "frustrate" "scrapping," and nondescript boots still muddy from the field of honour. The back row stands, with folded arms, manly and martial; the captain sits in the centre of the front row, holding on his knees the ball with the date on it in white, while the proud winners of the silver-edged, silver-tasseled "distinction caps" sit beside him chested of all.

TWO UMPIRES

"Queer how one remembers—and forgets. I recall the trivial fact that our boots in those days were 'barred,' studs being unknown to us; but I had forgotten that our football matches were governed not only by a referee but also by two umpires; and I should not know that now had I not before me the school magazines for my three seasons and can fill the gaps in my memory by quotations from the text of the artless school reporter. Very quaint reading they make, too. 'A try which the referee at first allowed, but afterwards, on being challenged by the opponents' umpire, refused to give us.' 'Though palpably offside, A—grounded the ball between the posts, the umpires, curiously enough, allowing the try.' So the referee was not omnipotent, and with such divided authority disputes were inevitable.

"A win by one goal to a disputed goal," reminds me of a famous contemporary quarrel which suspended the England versus Scotland International for a year. I can still see, vivid as a picture, for I was present at

Practice And Spoon Shoot

The following are the leading scores made in a practice shoot and spoon shoot competition fired on the Army Ranges yesterday afternoon.

The conditions were:—Seven shots and one sighting shot at 200 yards, 500 yards, and 600 yards. H.P.S., 105 points. Rifles, S.R. (a), and S.R. (b).

	S.R. (b) Rifles

Blackheath on that day in March, 1884, a golden-haired young Scot, glowing with the exercise and flushed with indignation, refusing to go beyond his line while the English kicked their disputed goal.

DEAD BALL LINE

Playing 30 minutes each way, we set the dead ball with one full back, three three-quarters, two halves—both "scrum halves, though the word 'scrum' never appears in the school record; 'scrummages' and 'scrummages' are given, with a preference for the former—and nine forwards. Behind the goal was no 'dead ball' line; has not a famous player of those days autobiographically declared that he nearly broke his neck blindy overrunning the ha-ha in Richmond Old Deer Park?

The ball being dead, a set scrummage had to be formed; there was no kicking-on of a dead ball. The forwards' first duty was to shove; to shove their opponents off the ball, and then to burst through with it at their feet, for heeling, though officially ruled not illegal, was generally condemned and by us, in 1885, was "not done." Those scrummages! Kipling writes of one at Westward Ho! which lasted 20 minutes by the college clock.

OUR HEROES

Throughout there is no mention of the referee blowing his whistle or of a penalty goal, so that a "fraud run" (whatever that was) escaped scot free. "C—, by a fraud run, gained a try." Did C—, who was, no doubt, a half-back, emulate Rotherham's famous "bounce out of touch" and nip over the line? The mercurial Alan was one of our heroes, with Stoddart, of Blackheath, and Tristram, of Oxford, just as Blackheath and Richmond were the champion clubs whose great doings we followed with immense interest.

A PRISON BLACK-LIST

The treatment of prisoners has grown steadily worse over the greater part of the European Continent. The reason is that revolution is more ferocious than war, and with the collapse of religious and ethical standards political offences are condemned more severely than ordinary crimes. Hungary once led the world in prison reform, but political remand prisoners are now treated there in a way that would have outraged the Hungarian reformers. In Russia the Red Terror has been incomparably worse than the White Terror under the Tsars, and political prisoners and convict labourers were much better off then they are now. But it is in Germany that the contrast is sharpest; the thing that goes on in German prisons to-day would have been inconceivable under the Hohenzollerns. Miss Horsburgh, the British delegate on the Social Questions Committee of the League of Nations Assembly, is therefore entirely right when she proposes to "black-list" practices that should not be tolerated in prisons. She and the delegate of the Irish Free State, Mr. Herne, gave examples of these practices: extorting evidence from prisoners—by "little less than torture," so Miss Horsburgh said, understating rather than overstating the truth—conditions worse than slavery, under-feeding, and so on. All these things are amongst the commonplaces of prison life east of the Rhine. Certainly resolutions and proposals will not put an end to them, but they will help to bring about the moral isolation of the countries in which they prevail and to set up standards which these countries may in time feel compelled to emulate.

PASSENGERS ARRIVED

PURE PAPER FOR CHESTERFIELD'S

They use 300 gallons of fresh water a minute to purify the clean flax linen pulp that Chesterfield paper is made of Slitting and winding wide rolls of cigarette paper into reels.

Champagne Paper Co., mill where Chesterfield paper is made.

Over and over again they boil and wash the pure flax linen shreds before they are rolled out into thin crisp paper and cut into rolls for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Every step in the manufacture and everything about the big modern factory where Chesterfield paper is made is spotless and clean.

Before the paper is shipped to the United States it is tested for three things—

Purity
Right burning quality
No taste or odor.

There is no better paper made than that used on Chesterfield—another thing that make it a milder, better-tasting cigarette.

RUBBER IN STRONG POSITION

London, Oct. 15.
 The rubber position appears to be stronger. It is generally recognised that, since the stocks held by manufacturers in countries suffering acute exchange difficulties have been reduced to a bare minimum, according to the chairman of Harrison-Crosfield, speaking at the annual meeting of that concern to-day.

He added that a further reduction of stocks was assured with the absorption continuing at the present rate.

The suggestion that the selling crop controlled by all companies domiciled in the United Kingdom should be concentrated in one hand appeared liable to cause a serious dislocation in the flow of trade and would soon destroy the organisation upon which they were able to rely at present to maintain London as the world's principal rubber market.

Referring to the chairman said the potential producing capacity was well ahead of current world consumption and it was

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, Oct. 15.

Further news after the Bourse of the Berlin sharemarket on Tuesday finds it in a friendlier mood than for the past few days, economic considerations at home are producing a greater effect than recently. For instance the increase of Ruhr coal sales for September and the announcement that the rate of sales of motorised vehicles of all kinds was trebled since 1933, produced a more confident outlook especially in view of the firmer tone of the London and New York Bourses.

Fixed interest securities were sluggish, while turnover was a small trend erratic. Provincial loans were weaker, and Gold Mortgages were neglected. Call Money rose from 3 to 3½. Young Loan was unquoted, on Monday, Reichsbank stood unchanged at 172 3/8, Dytrusts weakened 3/8 to 149 3/8, Salzedtfurth Potash declined ¼ to 133. German Steel-trusts were a ¼ firmer to 30½. German Mineral Oils weakened 1/8 to 103½. Siemens-Halske was unchanged at 168, and Bemberg Rayon improved 1¼ to 101½.

NEW RIVALRY FROM EGYPTIAN MILLS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

Egypt has imposed with immediate effect a 40 per cent ad valorem duty, following the depreciation of the yen, on Japanese cotton or rayon goods and textiles containing 50 per cent of cotton or rayon.

The increase follows Customs reports of dumping after the recent denunciation of the Egypto-Japanese treaty. The Customs receipts of Suez—the principal port of Far Eastern trade—have increased by nearly £150,000 in the last three months.

A protest by Japan is expected, and it is thought that the Japanese Government will claim that the period July 18 to October 18 is governed by the denounced treaty and that consequently the new duties are illegal.

BUSINESS STILL CAUSES UNEMPLOYMENT

Nanking.

World-wide business depression has thrown more than 29,000 Chinese laborers in the various parts of the world out of work during the last few months, according to investigations made by the China Office of the International Labour Bureau.

In the United States, there are now 13,000 Chinese unemployed, of which 12,000 are in New York, and 1,000 in San Francisco. Canada has a total of 5,000.

Nearly 200 Chinese laborers in Japan are now jobless. Most of them are residing in Tokyo and Nagoya, where they once operated restaurants and piece-good stores.

2,770 Chinese residents in Korea are now without work.

In the Southsea Islands, the total number of the jobless overseas Chinese is reported to be 5,570. They are distributed among Banks, 5,000; Samoa, 310; Palenbang, 130; and Bombay, 130.

Upwards of 8,000 Chinese employees in India and Annam are devoid of their jobs during the last few months.

Together with those in England and France, which number 80 and 40 respectively, the number of the Chinese jobless laborers in the world is, therefore, no less than 29,000.

PRINCE'S STAG HUNT

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

The Prince of Wales, who arrived at St. Wolfgang, in Upper Austria on Friday, yesterday attended a stag hunt in the Reitenbachgarben in the forenoon and a chamols shoot near Bad Ischl in the afternoon. After luncheon to-day the Prince watched a chamols shoot in the district of Zimnitz.

His Royal Highness was serenaded by a Salzburg band on the night of his arrival, and to-night witnessed the performance of a Schupplattler (a Tyrolean clog dance). The Prince expects to leave St. Wolfgang on Tuesday.

CROWN PRINCE OF EGYPT

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

The Crown Prince of Egypt, King Fuad's only son, who is 15, is coming to England to attend the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich. He will be accompanied by a retinue of Egyptian servants, and a house has been secured for him at Kingston-on-Thames.

It is anticipated that he will arrive in England at the beginning of next month and enter the R.M.A. in the New Year.

All Claims must be presented within 15 Days of the vessel's arrival here after which date they cannot be recognized.

No Claims will be admitted after the Goods have left the Godowns, and all Goods remaining undelivered after the 18th Oct., 1935, will be subject to Rent.

No Fire Insurance has been effected. Bills of Lading will be countersigned by

NEW FLYING CLUB IN RHODESIA

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

Lord Wakefield, whose long series of benefactions has done much to encourage civil aviation and air transport throughout the Empire, has given the newly-formed Flying Club of Northern Rhodesia funds to purchase, and assist in maintaining, an aeroplane.

The club is under the patronage of the Governors of Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, and Nyasaland. A large number of would-be pilots have long been seeking facilities for the instruction and practice which will now be available.
